Screwworm Drive Over Top In County Again

The Jones County Screwworm Fund drive is over the top again with money to spare, according to word this week from Charlie Myatt, who is chairman of The Jones County Animal Health Committee. The state of Texas is expected to contribute $250,000.00 toward the program to be matched with $300,000.00 by livestock producers. The Federal Government will contribute $550,000.00 to make the 1.1 million dollars necessary for the next 3 months operation.

Mr. Myatt had nothing but praise for the local committeemen for going out and getting the job done on the Jones County Screwworm Drive.

Burleson Starts Research Series On Historical Meaning of Law

Omar Burleson, M. C. 17th District, Texas

WASHINGTON, D. C. — Unless Events Prevent, This Column will attempt a series of comments on historical research on the meaning of Law. To do so will require several issues, with what is hoped to be some continuity. Trends of our time suggest the subject.

In 1850 a Frenchman, Bastiat, an economist, writer and statesman of the French Assembly, wrote a treatise on what law "should justly be". He was seemingly inspired by his witnessing the political turbulence following the French Revolution. Evidently an unrest in the Country's society had reached its height from about 1848 to the time of his work.

The writings of Bastiat had deep significance in that troubled period of France. At that point in history socialist and communist reforms were sweeping the Country. The political and social upheavals were not always defined in these terms, any more than they are in our own America today, but conditions are similar.

"The Law Perverted!" So, Bastiat begins with severe indictment. He said that "The Law itself is guilty of the evils it is supposed to punish." And then in order to define the proper role of Law, he returned to its origin.

Life, Liberty And Property DO NOT EXIST just because men have made Laws. Indeed those possessions preceded man-made Law and are SUPERIOR to it. They are gifts from God. The endowment from our Creator that envelopes all others individually (life) may be sustained, if through exercise of man's facilities to natural resources (liberty) he is able to convert those resources to use.

Ford Mustang On Way to Break All Records for New Car Line

On its way to establishing a record as the most successful new car ever introduced in the United States, the Ford Mustang sold all but three other car lines in the first year following its public introduction on April 17, 1964, according to Charles Connolly, Local Ford Dealer.

Overcoming such obstacles as lack of availability and a half-month strike which halted Mustang production, the sporty new car chalked up more first-year sales than any other car in automotive history.

"The only problem we've had with the Mustang all year is making them fast enough," Donald N. Frey, Ford Motor Company vice president and Ford Division general manager, reported.

More than 22,000 Mustangs were ordered by Ford dealer showroom visitors on April 17-18 — the first weekend the car was publicly introduced — and a record four-million persons visited the showrooms during introduction weekend.

"The Mustang's first year on the automotive scene cannot be told only in sales statistics," Mr. Frey noted. "It also had an unprecedented emotional impact on the motoring public." He pointed out that the Company has received more than 4,000 letters from Mustang customers relating how the new car influenced their lives and those of their families and friends.

"This kind of personal identification with a product is a rare and real tribute to the impression it has made on the public," Mr. Frey said.

menon associated with the car. He termed another phenomenon associated with the car "Mustang Mania," noting that various business organizations had sought permission during the year to use the Mustang name on their products.

"Today, a man can dress virtually from head to toe in 'Mustang' clothes and a young lady can wear a wide assortment of 'Mustang' jewelry," Mr. Frey said.

Judging from an early German cookbook, the burgers of 1500 liked strongly spiced foods.

THE HAMLIN HERALD

HAMLIN, JONES COUNTY, TEXAS 79520, APRIL 15, 1965

AN EDITORIAL—

Compromise Seems Only Answer In Teacher Pay Problem; Neither Bill 'Good'

By BOB CRAIG
Editor, The Hamlin Herald

Because of the importance of the matter of Texas School Teachers' pay raises to the people of this area and because of a questionnaire that was sent out to the people of this area by State Representative Roy Arledge, the following attempt is being made to give our readers a better understanding of the two bills before the legislature at the present time. We also will attempt to give our recommendations.

In the questionnaire sent by Rep. Arledge to every tenth person in the phone book he asked four questions. Do you favor the State Teachers Association Bill, the ten year or Governor's plan, some type of compromise, or no change.

While Arledge gave a brief explanation of the two bills he did not give enough information for a fair answer. It would seem to us that he was a little misleading when he threatened the loss of the Farm Machinery exemption on the 2 per cent sales tax. Even if this exemption is taken away because of the need for state money to pay the teachers, it does not necessarily mean that the farmers would be any better off under the other bill with its increase in property taxes.

The State Teachers are asking for a simple $405 a year raise with the tricky name of "45 in '65". This bill would give every teacher the same increase regardless of experience. The cost to the state would be $33,600,000. The cost to the Hamlin Independent School District would be $7,442.00.

Governor's Plan

The Governor's Plan or Senator Jack Strong's bill is a six part bill. (1) The beginning salaries would be increased over a ten year period from the present $4,014 to $4,500 for a teacher with a bachelor's degree, from $4,239 to $4,806 for a teacher with a master's degree, and from $4,239 to $5,481 for a teacher with a doctor's degree.

(2) The state-supported maximum salary would be increased from $5,094 to $6,390 for a BA teacher, from $6,075 to $7,326 for an MA teacher, and from $6,075 to $8,001 for a Ph.D teacher over the ten years.

(3) The state would put up an additional $50 per classroom teacher unit, to be matched by an equal amount from the local district, for additional selective salary increases of not less than $100 nor more than $1,000 per nine months.

(4) That the automatic yearly increase be raised from $108 to $126 for teaching experience after 1961.

(5) Teachers would be exempt from tuition at state colleges while attending graduate school in the summer.

(6) Local districts would pay 20 per cent of the cost of textbooks and 20 per cent of the cost of teacher retirement. Both of these are now paid totally by the state.

The cost to the state would be $5,700,000.00 and the cost to the Hamlin district would be $9,713.00.

High Cost to District

The two big arguments against the Governor's bill is the cost to the local district and small amount of raise for the teachers. It is argued that the teachers would get more money at less cost to the district under the Teacher's bill.

The principle cost of the governor's bill to the local district is the 20 per cent of the textbooks and the retirement. Without this the two bills would match up the same percentage-wise in that the state would pay 80 per cent and the local district 20 percent on a state-wide basis. Locally this percentage would be nearer to 70-30 for both bills.

Under the governor's bill a beginning teacher with a BA degree would get $90 more than the present starting salary this year but ten years from now a beginning teacher would get $486 more.

A teacher starting this year with a BA degree would be making $5,175 in ten years under the Teacher's bill and $5,760 under the Governor's bill.

Compromise Needed

To this writer it would seem that a compromise in the two bills is needed. But first it would seem to be better if the matter of whether the local districts should pay part of the cost of textbooks and retirement fund was put into a separate bill so as not to cloud the pay issue.

There are many arguments both pro and con on this matter but the main one against the local increase is that the

Neinda Philosopher Finds World Geography Has Gotten Out of Hand and Is Getting Worse

Editor's note: The Neinda Philosopher on his Johnson grass farm on Route 1 reports on his geographical ignorance this week.

Dear Editor:

I was talking with a man in town who keeps up with such things as geography and the impending crisis in for-

death, so I broke in on the eign countries, listening to him explain just what the situation in Viet Nam is, what North Viet Nam has done, what South Viet Nam has done, what our foreign policy there is and what it ought to be, etc., and to tell you the truth I was getting bored to flow.

"Say," I said, "I see that Upper Volta is still on our side."

"What're you talking about?" he asked.

"Nothing, especially. It's just good to know that Upper Volta is still on our side."

"Upper Volta? What's that?"

I knew I had him, but I didn't press the point, and came on home and hunted up the newspaper I'd read the name in, to make sure I hadn't imagined it.

It's true. There is a country named Upper Volta, and its president, Maurice Yameogo, had just made a visit to Washington and been given the full red carpet treatment, with a 21-gun salute and a parade.

Now I haven't taken a survey, but I'll bet a subscription to The Herald against a subscription to the New York Times that until Mr. Yameogo showed up in Washington and got his name in the papers and on television, there weren't 100 people in the United States, including teachers, professors, editors, politicians and owners of encyclopedias, who'd ever heard of Upper Volta.

What this proves is that regardless of how well posted a man is on world affairs, he can't know it all, there has to be a good part of the world he's ignorant of. In fact I doubt if there are a dozen people in the world who can sit down right now without any preparation and name all the countries on earth, and even among those who can it's about like memorizing the names of all the counties in the 50 states in the U. S. and knowing something about the internal politics of each.

Where geography got out of control was when we didn't stop with 13 colonies, and here we are about to take on outer space.

Yours faithfully,
J. A.

Cotton Growers Making Progress In Efforts to Make Better Products

Lubbock, Texas — (Special) — Efforts by cotton growers to provide consumers with new and improved cotton products are making significant progress, a report from the Cotton Producers Institute indicates.

Renewal of grants for research work on cotton products was announced today by Roy Davis, Lubbock, and Jack Funk, Harlingen, Texas trustees for the Institute.

Growers renewed three projects aimed at providing men with improved cotton suits and trousers. Purpose is to develop suitably styled and designed garments with maximum wrinkle resistance, freedom from seam pucker, good shape and crease retention, and good wash and wear properties.

Scientists at Harris Research Laboratories, Washington, D. C., have developed several novel methods for altering cuffs and a process for delaying the "curing" of treated suiting fabrics.

Some 100 suits have been wear-tested. The present level of performance exceeds that of wash-wear suits now on the market, according to reports.

To make the suits even more attractive, growers are sponsoring research on fabric design and development. Idea is to offer men attractively styled cotton suiting fabrics that give top performance.

Research grants to Texas Woman's University to compare the performance of all-cotton products with that of competing products have been renewed.

Besides producing information on research opportunities, these studies are providing valuable facts for use in informing consumers of the advantages of cotton products.

Two renewed Institute grants deal with reversible crosslinks. With this technique, molecules within fibers could be "linked together" and then "unlinked" when desired. This would enable the production of cotton garments which have durably creased, easy care qualities, yet can be altered to fit individual customers.

Also renewed was an Institute project to find a method to improve the luster of cotton products. Better luster would improve cotton's competitive strength in markets now using the equivalent of nine million bales annually.

The Institute was launched in 1961 by cotton growers as a mechanism to increase cotton markets and profits through research and promotion. Its projects are serviced by the National Cotton Council, so all funds from participating growers are used by research and promotion.

Put telephone wires underground and you've put them in a safe place. Safe from wind, rain, hot weather, cold weather, stormy weather. All around safer from the kinds of trouble which can affect your phone service.

That's why this year Southwestern Bell is spending $10 million burying hundreds of additional miles of telephone cable underground. In effect, buying life insurance for your telephone service.

There's another benefit. New jobs will be created. Some in the telephone business and an estimated 500 new jobs among the hundreds of firms which sell supplies, services and materials to the telephone company.

This is a 1965 communications bonus. Part of a massive construction effort to make the world's best telephone service even better.

EASTER

DAY OF TRIUMPH

"He is not here: for he is risen, as he said."

Thus, on the third day our Lord rose and conquered death, fulfilling his promise. There are many other promises of wonderful things that our Lord has made to us. These are given to us in the Holy Bible. Enter his house this week, on the day set aside for celebrating his triumph, and hear the full story of this great victory. Make this a new beginning in your life too.

The Church is God's appointed agency in this world for spreading the knowledge of His love for man and of His demand for man to respond to that love by loving his neighbor. Without this grounding in the love of God, no government or society or way of life will long persevere and the freedoms which we hold so dear will inevitably perish. Therefore, even from a selfish point of view, one should support the Church for the sake of the welfare of himself and his family. Beyond that, however, every person should uphold and participate in the Church because it tells the truth about man's life, death and destiny; the truth which alone will set him free to live as a child of God.

STATE CAPITAL Highlights AND Sidelights by Vern Sanford TEXAS PRESS ASSOCIATION

AUSTIN. — Biggest job of the 59th Legislature — writing the $3,600,000,000 biennial budget for state government — was being quietly wrapped up in conference committee this week.

Conferees were playing a game of "beat-the-clock" to wind up before Easter holidays.

If they fail to make it, such important issues as teachers' pay raises and balancing tax measures would be postponed until dangerously late in the session.

Both Lt. Gov. Preston Smith and House Speaker Ben Barnes urged committee chairmen to turn on the speed.

Rep. Bill Healy of Paducah, chairman of the House group, doubted the task could be completed by April 15, previous deadline set by Barnes. But Healy said 15 solid hours of work would do the trick — if conferees can find the time between busy floor sessions.

Completing the 59th legislative meeting by the end-of-May cutoff time may depend on whether the conferees find that 15 hours for showdown decisions on vital money matters.

REDISTRICTING NOW OR NEVER — Sub-committee chairmen of the House redistricting committee huddled this week to compare notes on how legislative and congressional districts should be carved up under court order.

Senate already has passed two versions of a plan to increase its membership from 31 to 39 to help the work along.

Indications are that the House plans to give big counties the minimum representation allowable. This to make the painful task of reapportionment as easy as possible on rural areas which must yield representation any way you look at it.

State lawmakers are hopeful congress soon will pass a bill authorizing a 15 per cent variation above and below the mathematical average population per district. Speaker Barnes, on advice of Texas congressmen, predicts U. S. Supreme Court would yield that far in its one-man-one-

FEDERAL DOLLARS FLOW

—Legislative budget writers nearing the end of a long trail, are confronted with a new problem. Question is how to anticipate the effect on state finances of an unprecedented flood of federal dollars flowing into a variety of programs.

Some think a special session of the Legislature may be necessary, after final congressional action, in order to tie down overlooked matching-fund requirements.

Two proposed federal programs are perplexing the appropriations bill conferees:

1. Medicare — hospitalization and health care for the aged, blind, disabled and children — now on public assistance rolls.

2. The elementary and secondary education act which passed the House of Representatives in Congress. It would provide over $85,000,000 to Texas schools next year.

Conferees, wrestling with the problem of how to balance the books, or recommend new taxes, hope to figure some way that federal funds can be used to reduce pressure on state school money.

Medicare offers some complex questions as to how much money the state must provide in matching funds to meet federal program requirements.

With new federal programs springing up in all areas, veteran Texas lawmakers are looking toward annual sessions of the Texas Legislature. They say the state's antiquated system of biennial budgeting soon must yield to one-year financing and annual sessions if Texas is to keep in line with congressional operations.

SERVICE MERGER — Twenty Texas communities will lose their standby military service units under the state's plan for merger of Army National Guard and Reserve forces.

Plan, already approved with reservations by Gov. Connally, will be sent to the Department of the Army this month. The Pentagon has ordered Texas forces trimmed by 4,600 men and 155 organized units.

Communities which would lose their Guard units under the state plan drawn to conform with overall U. S. directives are Belton, Breckenridge,

Canyon, Carrizo Springs, Cisco, Cooper, Colorado City, Crockett, Electra, Jacksboro, Monahans, Olney, Palestine, Pecos, Rusk, Santa Anna and Whitney.

Boerne, Uvalde and Pleasanton would lose reserve units.

Major General Thomas S. Bishop, the Texas adjutant general, said Guard payrolls of the 17 towns losing their units totalled $368,499 last year.

A Guard brigade replacing the 90th Infantry Division will be located in South Texas and headquartered in San Antonio.

The 49th Brigade, successor to the 49th Armored Division, will include troops located in North and East Texas. Its headquarters will be in Dallas. Austin will be headquarters for the 36th Brigade. It replaces the 36th Division, with units in Central and Southeast Texas. Houston likely will retain the 75th Maneuver Area Command. An artillery group headquarters would be located in Wichita Falls, with units from West Texas and Panhandle area.

WATER PLANS MOVE — Senate passed and sent to the House key water proposals recommended by Governor Connally.

One would make the Texas Water Development Board, a six-member agency, the state's official water planning agency.

Another would authorize $200,000,000 in additional bonds for construction or purchase of water storage facilities. Earlier the Senate passed a measure giving the Texas Water Commission a new name — the Water Rights Commission — and authority to decide water rights and conflicting claims.

ENLARGED SENATE RE-APPROACHED — Senators saw bugs in the plan they passed earlier to enlarge their membership from 31 to 39, guaranteeing all but five incumbents terms extended through next year's elections.

So, Sen. Louis Crump of San Saba introduced a new version which would require all senators to run for re-election in 1966 if they want to keep their jobs. New measure quickly won committee approval.

Increasing terms from four

the "big senate" plan. If approved by the Legislature, it will go to voters July 24. Senators think it will be a relatively painless way out of redistricting for them.

A Senate bill to legalize variances of 15 per cent over and under the mathematical population average for House and Senate districts also received committee approval. This despite warnings that federal courts, which ordered districts of equal population, might disapprove.

HORSES STOPPED AT THE GATE — After the longest committee hearing thus far this season, the bill by Rep. Maurice Pipkin of Brownsville to legalize parimutuel bets on horse races in counties which approve by local option was sent to a subcommittee.

Whether it is reported out of the subcommittee depends on how many votes Pipkin thinks he can garner on the House floor. Right now, the odds are that the bill would be defeated in the House by about 2-to-1.

If no better results can be expected, Pipkin will ask the subcommittee to kill the bill quietly for this session by not reporting it out.

Texas Racing Association, which has been trying to "educate" Texans on horse racing, says it will be around for another try.

At a public hearing the association presented a series of "expert witnesses" on horse racing as a sport and also as a money-raiser both for the general economy and for the local and state tax coffers. It emphasized the impetus horse racing reportedly gives to agriculture and argued that parimutuel betting is not so much betting as it's a test of knowledge and skill in selecting a winning horse.

Opponents of the bill attacked it on moral grounds, saying horse-race betting would attract undesirable persons and would weaken the moral fiber of Texas society.

AG OPINIONS — Atty. Gen. Waggoner Carr has held that a county clerk has no authority to issue a duplicate marriage license unless the license he issued was returned and recorded by him. Ruling was given in answer to a request by Gillespie County Attorney Richard Hoerster.

Carr also ruled that nothing in the State's laws prohibits the operation of a mobile

GROCERS FIGHT LABELING — Texas retail grocers raised strong objections at the public hearing for Rep. A. C. Atwood's bill to require labeling of imported citrus fruit, dating original packing of fruits or vegetables and marking "cold storage" any bin in which produce has been under refrigeration for as long as 60 days.

FAIRVIEW NEWS

by Mrs. Elmer Joiner
Another Monday morning, another dry norther, that is the weather pattern this April 12. Some rain fell last week, ranging from four-tenths to an inch, in various places. Just enough rain comes to keep the wheat from giving up, the weather man always promises rain next week, we just wonder how long it can make it on promises when the real warm weather hits.
Connie Drake came home from the hospital in Abilene last Tuesday, and is doing pretty good.
Little Jimmy Jones, son of Mr. and Mrs. Bill Jones, of Sherman, and grandson of the R. M. Jones, had heart surgery in Dallas, last Monday morning. This was a very long tedious operation, as they always are, lasting five and one half hours, but reports from there Saturday were that he is doing fine, in fact he was walking up and down the hall. The parents have been knowing that this was coming up for five years, and have lived under the dread that long but it appears now through the miracle of science, that the little son will soon be well, like other children.
A visit to Mrs. Lois Hampton, in Abilene, found her back in the nursing home, out of the hospital. Three weeks ago she had surgery for a blood clot in her left leg, then last Monday they gave her heart an electric shock treatment, repeating the procedure again Thursday. This was an effort to regulate her heart beat, which has a defect in two chambers. As of Saturday, she was feeling pretty good, celebrating her birthday, won't give her age away for that is a woman's secret.
Mr. and Mrs. Archie Hogan, of Spur, spent Sunday with her brother, Mr. and Mrs. Woodrow Goodwin and Linda.
Mr. and Mrs. Winson Gray, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Gray, and Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Pylon, visited in O'Donnell, Sunday.
Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Joiner visited in Anson, Sunday afternoon, with Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Ray. The men went to the Anson hospital to see Olin Potts but found he had gone home Saturday. He suffered a heart attack a few weeks ago and had been in the Anson hospital since.
Mr. and Mrs. Pete Steele were Sunday afternoon visitors of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Ford.
Mr. and Mrs. Ford have about come down to earth again, after having been "up in the air" last week, for a plane ride from Midland to El Paso.
Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Henry and Jo, Elgin, spent the weekend with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Henry.
Mrs. Henry has been on the ailing list again last week. It seems that she no sooner gets about over one cold when she takes another. This past winter has been cruel to her and we hope she can soon feel like her usual, jolly self.
Mr. and Mrs. Jim Lain visited with the Woodrow Goodwin's Saturday night. Also present were the Winson Grays.
A card from an interested friend, of the Fairview Cemetery, last week, asked us to announce about the cemetery working, at that place which is held annually on the first Saturday in May. Every one is asked to come and bring a basket lunch and a program is planned for the afternoon. The program will consist of singing, readings and talks by some of the residents of this area, who have been moved away many years. We urged every one that is interested in keeping this day alive, to be on hand, and bring lunch and spend the day, if at all possible.
The family night committee, for this month, has planned an Easter egg hunt, Saturday afternoon, at five o'clock, for the children, then supper of sandwiches, potato chips, etc. will be served later. We don't know what they have planned for the fellowship meeting, but we always have a good time.
Next Sunday will be Easter Sunday, when all the young as well as young at heart, folks will wear their new Easter bonnets. We hope to see a big crowd in our services on that day.

Care Needed In Selecting Plants For Outdoor Living Areas

COLLEGE STATION, — Select plants for the outdoor living area with the same care and finesse that is used in selecting a fine piece of furniture for the interior living area.
Too often, says Everett Janne, Extension horticulturist, Texas A&M University, plant purchases are limited to impulse buying with no thought of where the plant will be used, or what its ultimate size will be. The urge to use plants that will give a quick effect will usually result in an outdoor living area filled with plants which soon outgrow their assigned space.
Over-planting is another tendency possessed by many home owners who are trying to secure a quick effect. This is fine if one has the fortitude to throw out the surplus plants as soon as they begin to crowd each other, says Janne.
But for the best effect and to insure lasting enjoyment the homeowner should realize that a well landscaped area requires planning and time to develop. Frequently the landscaping of the home must be done on a limited budget.
Mr. and Mrs. Roy Watts were in services again, Sunday morning. Sunday night visitors were the White family, who reside north of the church. It is always good to see visitors we need them in our services.

Teachers--

local district has only one source of revenue — property taxes — while the state can pass a broad base tax that would include many more people.
As to the matter of which pay bill is best for the people of Texas as well as the teachers of Texas it would seem that the Governor's bill with some possible changes has more merit.
It would seem to us that if the first year increases in the governor's bill were doubled to bring the beginning teacher's salary up to $4,194 and the other's up accordingly, the governor's plan would give the state a planned system of growth for its public education system.
The main problem with the Teacher's plan is that it makes no provision for the future and would mean that they would have to come back again for another increase as they have every four years for the past 12 years.
Another argument we hear against the governor's plan is that it does more for the experienced teacher than it does for the beginning teacher. This is as it should be. What business or industry is there that does not pay more for experience. There is no doubt that a beginning teacher should receive more than they are receiving now, but it would also seem to us that more would enter the field if they knew it had a better future than they would just for a better starting salary.
We would recommend a compromise of the Governor's plan that would eliminate the textbook and retirement provision and double the first year increases. We feel that the other provisions of the governor's plan have merit.

Chevelle. This one's got lively looks, spirited power, a softer ride—and remarkable room atop a highly maneuverable wheelbase. No wonder it's today's favorite mid-size car.

Chevy II. No car so trim has a right to be so thrifty. But thrifty it is, with money-savers like brakes that adjust themselves and a long-lived exhaust system.

CB Club Plans Toronado Watch Again This Year

The local radio club has announced plans to have a weather watch again this year during the toronado and turbulent weather season. Radio-equipped cars will be stationed on highways outside of town and will report to base stations in town on weather conditions during the evening hours.

Those participating in the weather watch are studying cloud formations, general conditions that precipitate severe weather, and they are planning a trip to the weather bureau in Abilene for further instructions.

Every effort is being made to let the people of Hamlin know when severe weather or tornadoes are approaching the city. Until further details are worked out, those wishing to get the latest weather information can call Sp 4-1726 or Sp 4-1153.

The radio club has also compiled a list of over one hundred blood donors for the local hospital. At present there is a need for more donors for the following types of blood: B positive, B negative, AB positive, AB negative, A negative, and O negative. Anyone who is willing to donate blood may contact Glenn Williams or Jerry Pritchard who will add the names to the list and see that the hospital gets them.

Screwworm Drive Over Top In County Again

The Jones County Screwworm Fund drive is over the top again with money to spare, according to word this week from Charlie Myatt, who is chairman of The Jones County Animal Health Committee. The Screwworm Program has been one of the most beneficial programs ever initiated, says Myatt, and livestock producers have voluntarily mailed their checks in to exceed the county quota of $1271.00.

The state of Texas is expected to contribute $250,000.00 toward the program to be matched with $300,000.00 by livestock producers. The Federal Government will contribute $550,000.00 to make the 1.1 million dollars necessary for the next 3 months operation.

Mr. Myatt had nothing but praise for the local committeemen for going out and getting the job done on the Jones County Screwworm Drive. Mr. Myatt advises producers who have not contributed to the program to go ahead and mail their checks in to one of the designated places or committeemen. It will be accepted and mailed in to the proper authorities.

Brucellosis Testing Behind In Jones County

The Jones County Brucellosis testing program is lagging behind, according to information this week from Jones County Agent, Kirby Clayton. Clayton reported that Jones County producers must have all 1962 reactors herds retested and all 1962 suspect herds. In addition, 175 other represented herds in the county must be tested in order for Jones County to maintain its Brucellosis Free Status.

At the present only 52 representative herds and 24 reactor and suspect herds have been tested. Clayton urges livestock producers to test before the busy planting season starts and before hot weather gets here.

When you are ready to test please call Dr. Ballard at PR 3-3741 in Stamford or Ronnie Davis at OW-2-7104 in Abilene.

Burleson Starts Research Series On Historical Meaning of Law

Omar Burleson, M. C. 17th District, Texas

WASHINGTON, D. C. — Unless Events Prevent, This Column will attempt a series of comments on historical research on the meaning of Law. To do so will require several issues, with what is hoped to be some continuity. Trends of our time suggest the subject.

In 1850 a Frenchman, Bastiat, an economist, writer and statesman of the French Assembly, wrote a treatise on what law "should justly be". He was seemingly inspired by his witnessing the political turbulence following the French Revolution. Evidently an unrest in the Country's society had reached its height from about 1848 to the time of his work.

The writings of Bastiat had deep significance in that troubled period of France. At that point in history socialist and communist reforms were sweeping the Country. The political and social upheavals were not always defined in these terms, any more than they are in our own America today, but conditions are similar.

"The Law Perverted!" So, Bastiat begins with severe indictment. He said that "The Law itself is guilty of the evils it is supposed to punish." And then in order to define the proper role of Law, he returned to its origin.

Life, Liberty And Property DO NOT EXIST just because men have made Laws. Indeed those possessions preceded man-made Law and are SUPERIOR to it. They are gifts from God. The endowment from our Creator that envelopes all others individually (life) may be sustained, if through exercise of man's faculties to natural resources (liberty) he is able to convert those resources to use.

Ford Mustang On Way to Break All Records for New Car Line

On its way to establishing a record as the most successful new car ever introduced in the United States, the Ford Mustang out sold all but three other car lines in the first year following its public introduction on April 17, 1964, according to Charles Connally, Local Ford Dealer.

Overcoming such obstacles as lack of availability and a half-month strike which halted Mustang production, the sporty new car chalked up more first-year sales than any other car in automotive history.

"The only problem we've had with the Mustang all year is making them fast enough," Donald N. Frey, Ford Motor Company vice president and Ford Division general manager, reported.

More than 22,000 Mustangs were ordered by Ford dealer showrooms on April 17-18 — the first weekend the car was publicly introduced — and a record four-million persons visited the showrooms during introduction weekend.

"The Mustang's first year in the automotive scene cannot be told only in sales statistics," Mr. Frey noted. "It also had an unprecedented emotional impact on the motoring public." He pointed out that the Company has received more than 4,000 letters from Mustang customers relating how the new car influenced their lives and those of their families and friends.

"This kind of personal identification with a product is a rare and real tribute to the impression it has made on the public," Mr. Frey said.

men associated with the car. He termed another phenomenon associated with the car "Mustang Mania," noting that various business organizations had sought permission during the year to use the Mustang name on their products.

"Today, a man can dress virtually from head to toe in 'Mustang' clothes and a young lady can wear a wide assortment of 'Mustang' jewelry," Mr. Frey said.

Judging from an early German cookbook, the burgers of 1500 liked strongly spiced foods.

HAMLIN, JONES COUNTY, TEXAS 79520, APRIL 15, 1965

AN EDITORIAL—

Compromise Seems Only Answer In Teacher Pay Problem; Neither Bill 'Good'

By BOB CRAIG
Editor, The Hamlin Herald

Because of the importance of the matter of Texas School Teachers' pay raises to the people of this area and because of a questionnaire that was sent out to the people of this area by State Representative Roy Arledge, the following attempt is being made to give our readers a better understanding of the two bills before the legislature at the present time. We also will attempt to give our recommendations.

In the questionnaire sent by Rep. Arledge to every tenth person in the phone book he asked four questions. Do you favor the State Teachers Association Bill, the ten year or Governor's plan, some type of compromise, or no change.

While Arledge gave a brief explanation of the two bills he did not give enough information for a fair answer. It would seem to us that he was a little misleading when he threatened the loss of the Farm Machinery exemption on the 2 per cent sales tax. Even if this exemption is taken away because of the need for state money to pay the teachers, it does not necessarily mean that the farmers would be any better off under the other bill with its increase in property taxes.

The State Teachers are asking for a simple $405 a year raise with the tricky name of "45 in '65". This bill would give every teacher the same increase regardless of experience. The cost to the state would be $33,600,000. The cost to the Hamlin Independent School District would be $7,442.00.

Governor's Plan

The Governor's Plan or Senator Jack Strong's bill is a six part bill. (1) The beginning salaries would be increased over a ten year period from the present $4,014 to $4,500 for a teacher with a bachelor's degree, from $4,239 to $4,806 for a teacher with a master's degree, and from $4,239 to $5,481 for a teacher with a doctor's degree.

(2) The state-supported maximum salary would be increased from $5,094 to $6,390 for a BA teacher, from $6,075 to $7,326 for an MA teacher, and from $6,075 to $8,001 for a Ph.D teacher over the ten years.

(3) The state would put up an additional $50 per classroom teacher unit, to be matched by an equal amount from the local district, for additional selective salary increases of not less than $100 nor more than $1,000 per nine months.

(4) That the automatic yearly increase be raised from $108 to $126 for teaching experience after 1961.

(5) Teachers would be exempt from tuition at state colleges while attending graduate school in the summer.

(6) Local districts would pay 20 per cent of the cost of textbooks and 20 per cent of the cost of teacher retirement. Both of these are now paid totally by the state.

The cost to the state would be $5,700,000.00 and the cost to the Hamlin district would be $9,713.00.

High Cost to District

The two big arguments against the Governor's bill is the cost to the local district and small amount of raise for the teachers. It is argued that the teachers would get more money at less cost to the district under the Teacher's bill.

The principle cost of the governor's bill to the local district is the 20 per cent of the textbooks and the retirement. Without this the two bills would match up the same percentage-wise in that the state would pay 80 per cent and the local district 20 percent on a state-wide basis. Locally this percentage would be nearer to 70-30 for both bills.

Under the governor's bill a beginning teacher with a BA degree would get $90 more than the present starting salary this year but ten years from now a beginning teacher would get $486 more.

A teacher starting this year with a BA degree would be making $5,175 in ten years under the Teacher's bill and $5,760 under the Governor's bill.

Compromise Needed

To this writer it would seem that a compromise in the two bills is needed. But first it would seem to be better if the matter of whether the local districts should pay part of the cost of textbooks and retirement fund was put into a separate bill so as not to cloud the pay issue.

There are many arguments both pro and con on this matter but the main one against the local increase is that the

Neinda Philosopher Finds World Geography Has Gotten Out of Hand and Is Getting Worse

Editor's note: The Neinda Philosopher on his Johnston grass farm on Route 1 reports on his geographical ignorance this week.

Dear Editor:
I was talking with a man in town who keeps up with such things as geography and the impending crisis in for-

death, so I broke in on the eign countries, listening to him explain just what the situation in Viet Nam is, what North Viet Nam has done, what South Viet Nam has done, what our foreign policy there is and what it ought to be, etc., and to tell you the truth I was getting bored to flow.

"Say", I said, "I see that Upper Volta is still on our side."

"What're you talking about?" he asked.

"Nothing, especially. It's just good to know that Upper Volta is still on our side."

"Upper Volta? What's that?"

I knew I had him, but I didn't press the point, and came on home and hunted up the newspaper I'd read the name in, to make sure I hadn't imagined it.

It's true. There is a country named Upper Volta, and its president, Maurice Yameogo, had just made a visit to Washington and been given the full red carpet treatment, with a 21-gun salute and a parade.

Now I haven't taken a survey, but I'll bet a subscription to The Herald against a subscription to the New York Times that until Mr. Yameogo showed up in Washington and got his name in the papers and on television, there weren't 100 people in the United States, including teachers, professors, editors, politicians and owners of encyclopedias, who'd ever heard of Upper Volta.

What this proves is that regardless of how well posted a man is on world affairs, he can't know it all, there has to be a good part of the world he's ignorant of. In fact I doubt if there are a dozen people in the world who can sit down right now without any preparation and name all the countries on earth, and even among those who can it's about like memorizing the names of all the counties in the 50 states in the U. S. and knowing something about the internal politics of each.

Where geography got out of control was when we didn't stop with 13 colonies, and here we are about to take on outer space.

Yours faithfully,
J. A.

Cotton Growers Making Progress In Efforts to Make Better Products

Lubbock, Texas — (Special) — Efforts by cotton growers to provide consumers with new and improved cotton products are making significant progress, a report from the Cotton Producers Institute indicates.

Renewal of grants for research work on cotton products was announced today by Roy Davis, Lubbock, and Jack Funk, Harlingen, Texas trustees for the Institute.

Growers renewed three projects aimed at providing men with improved cotton suits and trousers. Purpose is to develop suitably styled and designed garments with maximum wrinkle resistance, freedom from seam pucker, good shape and crease retention, and good wash and wear properties.

Scientists at Harris Research Laboratories, Washington, D. C., have developed several novel methods for altering cuffs and a process for delaying the "curing" of treated suiting fabrics.

Some 100 suits have been wear-tested. The present level of performance exceeds that of wash-wear suits now on the market, according to reports.

To make the suits even more attractive, growers are sponsoring research on fabric design and development. Idea is to offer men attractively styled cotton suiting fabrics that give top performance.

Research grants to Texas Woman's University to compare the performance of all-cotton products with that of competing products have been renewed.

Besides producing information on research opportunities, these studies are providing valuable facts for use in informing consumers of the advantages of cotton products.

Two renewed Institute grants deal with reversible crosslinks. With this technique, molecules within fibers could be "linked together" and then "unlinked" when desired. This would enable the production of cotton garments which have durably creased, easy care qualities, yet can be altered to fit individual customers.

Also renewed was an Institute project to find a method to improve the luster of cotton products. Better luster would improve cotton's competitive strength in markets now using the equivalent of nine million bales annually.

The Institute was launched in 1961 by cotton growers as a mechanism to increase cotton markets and profits through research and promotion. Its projects are serviced by the National Cotton Council, so all funds from participating growers are used by research and promotion.

Put telephone wires underground and you've put them in a safe place. Safe from wind, rain, hot weather, cold weather, stormy weather. All around safer from the kinds of trouble which can affect your phone service.

That's why this year Southwestern Bell is spending $10 million burying hundreds of additional miles of telephone cable underground. In effect, buying life insurance for your telephone service.

There's another benefit. New jobs will be created. Some in the telephone business and an estimated 500 new jobs among the hundreds of firms which sell supplies, services and materials to the telephone company.

This is a 1965 communications bonus. Part of a massive construction effort to make the world's best telephone service even better.

STATE CAPITAL Highlights AND Sidelights by Vern Sanford TEXAS PRESS ASSOCIATION

AUSTIN, — Biggest job of the 59th Legislature — writing the $3,600,000,000 biennial budget for state government — was being quietly wrapped up in conference committee this week.

Conferees were playing a game of "beat-the-clock" to wind up before Easter holidays.

If they fail to make it, such important issues as teachers' pay raises and balancing tax measures would be postponed until dangerously late in the session.

Both Lt. Gov. Preston Smith and House Speaker Ben Barnes urged committee chairmen to turn on the speed.

Rep. Bill Heatly of Paducah, chairman of the House group, doubted the task could be completed by April 15, previous deadline set by Barnes. But Heatly said 15 solid hours of work would do the trick — if conferees can find the time between busy floor sessions.

Completing the 59th legislative meeting by the end-of-May cutoff time may depend on whether the conferees find that 15 hours for showdown decisions on vital money matters.

REDISTRICTING NOW OR NEVER — Sub-committee chairmen of the House redistricting committee huddled this week to compare notes on how legislative and congressional districts should be carved up under court order.

Senate already has passed two versions of a plan to increase its membership from 31 to 39 to help the work along.

Indications are that the House plans to give big counties the minimum representation allowable. This to make the painful task of reapportionment as easy as possible on rural areas which must yield representation any way you look at it.

State lawmakers are hopeful congress soon will pass a bill authorizing a 15 per cent variation above and below the mathematical average population per district. Speaker Barnes, on advice of Texas congressmen, predicts U. S. Supreme Court would yield that far in its one-man-one-vote edict.

FEDERAL DOLLARS FLOW — Legislative budget writers nearing the end of a long trail, are confronted with a new problem. Question is how to anticipate the effect on state finances of an unprecedented flood of federal dollars flowing into a variety of programs.

Some think a special session of the Legislature may be necessary, after final congressional action, in order to tie down overlooked matching-fund requirements.

Two proposed federal programs are perplexing the appropriations bill conferees:

1. Medicare — hospitalization and health care for the aged, blind, disabled and children — now on public assistance rolls.

2. The elementary and secondary education act which passed the House of Representatives in Congress. It would provide over $85,000,000 to Texas schools next year.

Conferees, wrestling with the problem of how to balance the books, or recommend new taxes, hope to figure some way that federal funds can be used to reduce pressure on state school money.

Medicare offers some complex questions as to how much money the state must provide in matching funds to meet federal program requirements.

With new federal programs springing up in all areas, veteran Texas lawmakers are looking toward annual sessions of the Texas Legislature. They say the state's antiquated system of biennial budgeting soon must yield to one-year financing and annual sessions if Texas is to keep in line with congressional operations.

SERVICE MERGER — Twenty Texas communities will lose their standby military service units under the state's plan for merger of Army National Guard and Reserve forces.

Plan, already approved with reservations by Gov. Connally, will be sent to the Department of the Army this month. The Pentagon has ordered Texas forces trimmed by 4,600 men and 155 organized units.

Communities which would lose their Guard units under the state plan drawn to conform with overall U. S. directives are Belton, Breckenridge,

Canyon, Carrizo Springs, Cisco, Cooper, Colorado City, Crockett, Electra, Jacksboro, Monahans, Olney, Palestine, Pecos, Rusk, Santa Anna and Whitney.

Boerne, Uvalde and Pleasanton would lose reserve units.

Major General Thomas S. Bishop, the Texas adjutant general, said Guard payrolls of the 17 towns losing their units totalled $368,499 last year.

A Guard brigade replacing the 90th Infantry Division will be located in South Texas and headquartered in San Antonio. The 49th Brigade, successor to the 49th Armored Division, will include troops located in North and East Texas. Its headquarters will be in Dallas. Austin will be headquarters for the 36th Brigade. It replaces the 36th Division, with units in Central and Southeast Texas. Houston likely will retain the 75th Maneuver Area Command. An artillery group headquarters would be located in Wichita Falls, with units from West Texas and Panhandle area.

WATER PLANS MOVE — Senate passed and sent to the House key water proposals recommended by Governor Connally.

One would make the Texas Water Development Board, a six-member agency, the state's official water planning agency.

Another would authorize $200,000,000 in additional bonds for construction or purchase of water storage facilities. Earlier the Senate passed a measure giving the Texas Water Commission a new name — the Water Rights Commission — and authority to decide water rights and conflicting claims.

ENLARGED SENATE RE-APPROACHED — Senators saw bugs in the plan they passed earlier to enlarge their membership from 31 to 39, guaranteeing all but five incumbents terms extended through next year's elections.

So, Sen. Louis Crump of San Saba introduced a new version which would require all senators to run for re-election in 1966 if they want to keep their jobs. New measure quickly won committee approval.

Increasing terms from four

the "big senate" plan. If approved by the Legislature, it will go to voters July 24. Senators think it will be a relatively painless way out of re-districting for them.

A Senate bill to legalize variances of 15 per cent over and under the mathematical population average for House and Senate districts also received committee approval. This despite warnings that federal courts, which ordered districts of equal population, might disapprove.

HORSES STOPPED AT THE GATE — After the longest committee hearing thus far this season, the bill by Rep. Maurice Pipkin of Brownsville to legalize parimutuel bets on horse races in counties which approve by local option was sent to a subcommittee.

Whether it is reported out of the subcommittee depends on how many votes Pipkin thinks he can garner on the House floor. Right now, the odds are that the bill would be defeated in the House by about 2-to-1.

If no better results can be expected, Pipkin will ask the subcommittee to kill the bill quietly for this session by not reporting it out.

Texas Racing Association, which has been trying to "educate" Texans on horse racing, says it will be around for another try.

At a public hearing the association presented a series of "expert witnesses" on horse racing as a sport and also as a money-raiser both for the general economy and for the local and state tax coffers. It emphasized the impetus horse racing reportedly gives to agriculture and argued that parimutuel betting is not so much betting as it's a test of knowledge and skill in selecting a winning horse.

Opponents of the bill attacked it on moral grounds, saying horse-race betting would attract undesirable persons and would weaken the moral fiber of Texas society.

AG OPINIONS — Atty. Gen. Waggoner Carr has held that a county clerk has no authority to issue a duplicate marriage license unless the license he issued was returned and recorded by him. Ruling was given in answer to a request by Gillespie County Attorney Richard Hoerster.

Carr also ruled that nothing in the State's laws prohibits the operation of a mobil

GROCERS FIGHT LABELING — Texas retail grocers raised strong objections at the public hearing for Rep. A. C. Atwood's bill to require labeling of imported citrus fruit, dating original packing of fruits or vegetables and marking "cold storage" any bin in which produce has been under refrigeration for as long as 60 days.

by Mrs. Elmer Joiner
Another Monday morning, another dry norther, that is the weather pattern this April 12. Some rain fell last week, ranging from four-tenths to an inch, in various places. Just enough rain comes to keep the wheat from giving up, the weather man always promises rain next week, we just wonder how long it can make it on promises when the real warm weather hits.

Connie Drake came home from the hospital in Abilene last Tuesday, and is doing pretty good.

Little Jimmy Jones, son of Mr. and Mrs. Bill Jones, of Sherman, and grandson of the R. M. Jones, had heart surgery in Dallas, last Monday morning. This was a very long tedious operation, as they always are, lasting five and one half hours, but reports from there Saturday were that he is doing fine, in fact he was walking up and down the hall. The parents have been knowing that this was coming up for five years, and have lived under the dread that long but it appears now through the miracle of science, that the little son will soon be well, like other children.

A visit to Mrs. Lois Hampton, in Abilene, found her back in the nursing home, out of the hospital. Three weeks ago she had surgery for a blood clot in her left leg, then last Monday they gave her heart an electric shock treatment, repeating the procedure again Thursday. This was an effort to regulate her heart beat, which has a defect in two chambers. As of Saturday, she was feeling pretty good, celebrating her birthday, won't give her age away for that is a woman's secret.

Mr. and Mrs. Archie Hogan, of Spur, spent Sunday with her brother, Mr. and Mrs. Woodrow Goodwin and Linda.

Mr. and Mrs. Winson Gray, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Gray, and Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Pyron, visited in O'Donnell, Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Joiner visited in Anson, Sunday afternoon, with Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Ray. The men went to the Anson hospital to see Olin Potts but found he had gone home Saturday. He suffered a heart attack a few weeks ago and had been in the Anson hospital since.

Mr. and Mrs. Pete Steele were Sunday afternoon visitors of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Ford.

Mr. and Mrs. Ford have about come down to earth again, after having been "up in the air" last week, for a plane ride from Midland to El Paso.

Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Henry and Jo, Elgin, spent the weekend with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Henry.

Mrs. Henry has been on the ailing list again last week. It seems that she no sooner gets about over one cold when she takes another. This past winter has been cruel to her and we hope she can soon feel like her usual, jolly self.

Mr. and Mrs. Jim Lain visited with the Woodrow Goodwin's Saturday night. Also present were the Winson Grays.

A card from an interested friend, of the Fairview Cemetery, last week, asked us to announce about the cemetery working, at that place which is held annually on the first Saturday in May. Every one is asked to come and bring a basket lunch and a program is planned for the afternoon. The program will consist of singing, readings and talks by some of the residents of this area, who have been moved away many years. We urged every one that is interested in keeping this day alive, to be on hand, and bring lunch and spend the day, if at all possible.

The family night committee, for this month, has planned an Easter egg hunt, Saturday afternoon, at five o'clock, for the children, then supper of sandwiches, potato chips, etc. will be served later. We don't know what they have planned for the fellowship meeting, but we always have a good time.

Next Sunday will be Easter Sunday, when all the young as well as young at heart, folks will wear their new Easter bonnets. We hope to see a big crowd in our services on that day.

Care Needed In Selecting Plants For Outdoor Living Areas

COLLEGE STATION, — Select plants for the outdoor living area with the same care and finesse that is used in selecting a fine piece of furniture for the interior living area.

Too often, says Everett Janne, Extension horticulturist, Texas A&M University, plant purchases are limited to impulse buying with no thought of where the plant will be used, or what its ultimate size will be.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Watts were in services again, Sunday morning. Sunday night visitors were the White family, who reside north of the church. It is always good to see visitors we need them in our services.

Teachers--

local district has only one source of revenue — property taxes — while the state can pass a broad base tax that would include many more people.

As to the matter of which pay bill is best for the people of Texas as well as the teachers of Texas it would seem that the Governor's bill with some possible changes has more merit.

It would seem to us that if the first year increases in the governor's bill were doubled to bring the beginning teacher's salary up to $4,194 and the other's up accordingly, the governor's plan would give the state a planned system of growth for its public education system.

The main problem with the Teacher's plan is that it makes no provision for the future and would mean that they would have to come back again for another increase as they have every four years for the past 12 years.

Another argument we hear against the governor's plan is that it does more for the experienced teacher than it does for the beginning teacher. This is as it should be. What business or industry is there that does not pay more for experience. There is no doubt that a beginning teacher should receive more than they are receiving now, but it would also seem to us that more would enter the field if they knew it had a better future than they would just for a better starting salary.

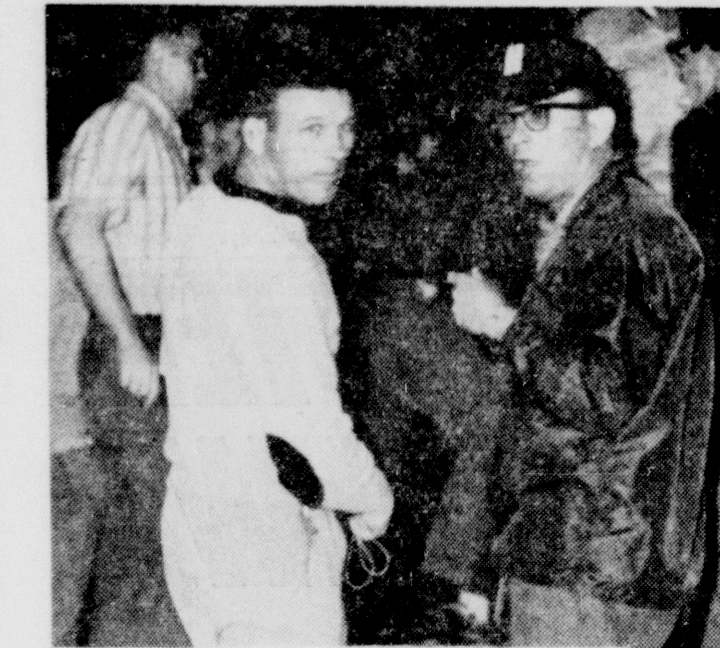

We would recommend a compromise of the Governor's plan that would eliminate the textbook and retirement provision and double the first year increases. We feel that the other provisions of the governor's plan have merit.

Chevrolet. It's a bigger, more beautiful car this year. Which is why that handsome silhouette could be mistaken for cars costing a thousand—even two thousand—dollars more.

Chevelle. This one's got lively looks, spirited power, a softer ride—and remarkable room atop a highly maneuverable wheelbase. No wonder it's today's favorite mid-size car.

Chevy II. No car so trim has a right to be so thrifty. But thrifty it is, with money-savers like brakes that adjust themselves and a long-lived exhaust system.

Corvair. Ask any '65 Corvair owner how it feels to drive a car with such easy steering, tenacious traction and responsive rear-engine power. And be ready to do lots of listening.
